The Arbuckles are experimenting with some new machines for weighing and packing sugar. The machines will pack a barrel a minute in five-pound packages. The Arbuckles have adopted a new process for roasting coffee, whereby the roasting is done by blast instead of fire. By the new process the beans are not burned or spotted. One of the blast roasters on a trial roasted 300 pounds of coffee in seven and a half minutes.

The little restaurant on the ground floor of the Custom House, over which Thomas Campbell, brother of ex-Congressman "Tim" Campbell, presided until a few days ago, was closed vesterday When Thomas Campbell quit last week he relin-quished possession of the place to Arendt and Doquisned possession of the place to Arendt and Do-nath, who used to be his cigar men and chef re-spectively. Some financial consideration is said to have passed between Campbell and the new own-ers. The privilege being a Government appoint-ment, some adverse criticism was aroused by Campbell's action, and the result of it all is the closing up of the place. Maybe some person friendly to the new Administration will succeed Campbell.

SILVER IN HIS POSSESSION. Martin T. Thomas, nineteen years old, who says that he comes from Boston, was arrested at Forty-first-st, and Seventh-ave, yesterday afternoon by Policeman Beadle, of the West Thirty-seventh-st. station, after a lively chase. He had with him a bundle of silverware. These articles were found in knives, a nut-cracker, a gold pen, with pearl holder; six forks, a silver comb and brush, with initials; "K. A. E."; a silver jewel box, with same initials; a fishspoon, three pepper-boxes, six soupspoons, a silver bowl, six teaspoons and a nutpick. He declined to state where he got them. In Jefferson Market Court Thomas was remanded until the police can find an owner for the articles.

Property Clerk Harriot, of the Police Department. has in his possession $2,000 awaiting proper cialmant. The money was turned over to him by Postation, who came by it in a peculiar manner. On Sunday night Mrs. Eliza Luger, a widow, of No. 425 East Eighty-second-st., came into the station with the money. She had ten $100 bills and one bill for $1,000. She offered the money to the captain, and requested him to see that it was paid over to the insurance company which had paid it to her on a policy which became due when her husband died. She declared that her husband's body would never rest in peace in the grave until the money was returned.

It seemed to Captain Young that the woman's mind was wandering, and he sent for her brother, John B. Weiss, of No. 526 East Eighty-third-st., who took the woman home, but yielded to her demand that the money remain with the captain. Yesterday morning Weiss went to the station with his sister and demanded the money. He declared his intention of sending his sister to an institution, and wished to devote the money to that purpose. The woman insisted that the money be turned over to the insurance company.

To extricate himself from an unpleasant situation Captain Young turned the money over to the property cierk, who will hold it until Mrs. Luger, in sound mind, demands it, or court proceedings are entered.

A BRUTAL ATTACK ON A GIRL.

Mary Thornton, who is employed in the Hotel Grenoble, where she is known as a good, hard-working young woman, was knocked down and kicked bout the body by an unknown man between Fiftyfifth and Fifty-sixth sts., in Eighth-ave., Monday night. The girl was walking along the avenue with another young woman employed at the Grenoble, when they passed a woman and two men in earnest when they passed a woman and two men in earnest conversation. The woman was heard to say as she passed the giris; "There goes the woman who takes my husband from me." At this one of the men turned and ran to the Thornton girl, whom he felled with his fists. As the girl lay prostrate on the sidewalk her assailant kicked her about the head and back, while the woman who had spurred him on to commit the inhuman act stood near by and made abusive remarks about Mary. In a few moments a large number of people stood around the prostrate girl and watched her assailant kick and heat her without uttering a cry of horror or interfering in any way.

The assailant ran away when a woman living in a house near the scene of the assault yelled "Murder!" This cry brought a noliceman to the scene. The girl was then unconscious, and a few feet from the girl was then unconscious, and a few feet from the girl was then unconscious, and a few feet from the girl will stood the heartless woman. The officer picked the girl up in his arms and carried her to a drugstore. She rezained consciousness on the way to the store, and after she had her wounds dressed returned to the hotel.
